A Special Note of Appreciation

We greatly appreciate the invitation of the Steinway Piano Gallery to use their recital hall for these ADMTA events.

Directions on how to get there:

The Steinway Piano Gallery is located on Research Blvd. (N. Hwy. 183) on the southbound access road between Anderson Mill Road and Spicewood Springs Road. A map is located on their website.

Parking:

Steinway Piano Gallery has plenty of parking in their parking lot, and it is free.

Important to remember:

As a courtesy, please do not practice on any of the showroom pianos. In addition, performers are asked to not practice on the concert hall piano either before or after the event without permission from the Steinway staff or ADMTA monitor. Please note that performers should come ready to play without warm-up.
